

SUMMER CAMP WHAT TO BRING LIST

Please note this “what to bring” list is for all camps except for Wilderness Week.
(You can find the what to bring list for these trips camps in the camper letter for each specific camp)

Here is a list of things you will need to have at check-in on the first day of camp:

- Any medications that the camper will need during their week of camp; these will be left with and dispensed by the Camp Nurse. Medication must be enclosed in a pharmacy labeled container with your child’s name or their original over the counter packaging.
- Spending money to purchase a Camper Fun Card. These cards can be used at the Camp Store (optional)
- $7.00 for the Camp Group Picture (optional)

Here is a more complete packing list for camp — Please have your name on everything and try to pack in one container (suitcase or duffel bag):

- 2 Sheets and a blanket, OR sleeping bag
- Pillow and pillowcase
- Bath towels & washcloth
- Toiletries: shampoo, toothbrush and toothpaste, deodorant, soap, hairbrush and/or comb
- Camp clothes, enough for 5 days: shirts, shorts, underwear (bra for girls), socks, 2 pair of shoes (like sneakers or deck shoes), raincoat, lightweight jacket or sweater, 1 pair of jeans or long pants. NOTE: No dress clothes will be needed
- Shorts/shirt that can get dirty or wet
- Swimsuit (keep it modest, please), flip-flops or similar to wear to the pool, sunscreen, beach towel, plastic bag for wet suit to go home in
- Your Bible (write your name in it)
- A water bottle
- A camera
- Insect repellent — a lotion, stick, or wipes; not a spray
- Something to tie-dye, like a t-shirt, pair of socks, shorts, etc. (This may or may not be used depending on programming)

DO NOT BRING: Any food items, like candy, gum, cookies or soda; radio, CD players, video game machines or video games, ipods (mp3 players), cell phones, personal sports equipment, water guns, pets, fireworks or sparklers, cigarettes or cigars, alcoholic beverages, non-prescription or illegal drugs, skateboard, knives, or any items of great expense. Please note that the camp is not responsible for any personal items that you bring to camp that may be lost, stolen, or broken.
